POSSE SLAYS SIX INDIANS IN BLOODY BATTLE

Desperate Dash to Escape Out of Canyon Trap Foiled by Hail of Bullets

New Battle in Progress While Telephone Wires Go Down and Details Are Lacking

CORTEZ, Colo., Feb. 23.—An attempt by the No. 10 cut's band of Piutes to escape from the cottonwood canyon in southeastern Utah, where they are surrounded by Federal Marshal Nebeker's posse, resulted in a desperate battle today.

Three more Indians were killed and several whites wounded. Very fierce fighting started at midnight. Three whites are known to be wounded.

The latest indications are that six Indians have been killed thus far. The Piutes retreated further into the cottonwood canyon yesterday under heavy fire.

Although their position is strong, they realize that eventual capture is inevitable if they remain.

Old Poik, taking command from his son, Tene Gai, directed a dash. Nebeker's posse poured a heavy fire into the Indians and checked the retreat.

The battle is still progressing. Telephone lines again have been interrupted. Nebeker has sent to Sale Lake for 5000 rounds of ammunition.

It was learned definitely at noon that the Indians have been heavily reinforced. Warriors missing from the Navajo reservation since Sunday are reported to have arrived at the bluff and joined the Piutes.

442,000 PERSONS SEE BIG FAIR

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—The exposition management announced today that holders of tickets for yesterday's postponed Vanderbilt cup race will be admitted on March 6, when the race is held.

When the gates opened today more than 442,000 people had visited the grounds. Heavy rains threatened to hold down the fair attendance today.

This was stockholders' day and was marked by a series of ceremonies on behalf of the 14,000 persons who own exposition stock.

The board of directors met the stockholders' delegation at 10:30 and marched to the musical concourse, where President Moore publicly rendered an accounting on behalf of the directors.

TAFT CALIFORNIA OIL LAND ORDER UPHOLD IN U. S. SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The federal supreme court today sustained former President Taft's executive order of 1909, withdrawing from public entry and private exploitation 3,000,000 acres of oil lands in California and Wyoming.

Power of the president to withdraw lands from public entry without specific authority from Congress was involved in the decision.

Development of oil lands of the public domain by private capital to the exclusion of the government was sought by the Midwest and other oil concerns disputing former President Taft's order. On September 27, 1909, Taft approved an order of the secretary of the interior withdrawing 3,041,000 acres of petroleum land in California and Wyoming from public entry under the mineral or non-mineral land laws. Of these, 2,871,000 acres were in California and 170,000 acres

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., Feb. 23.—To doubting friends who have noticed no signs of rabies, Emil Freidheim, a rancher, is exhibiting a sore foot and a dentist's bill to prove that he was bitten by his false teeth. Freidheim said that after going to bed he sneezed violently and his teeth flew out on the floor. He jumped up to rescue them and two molars which had broken off "snapped" him in the foot.

SHELTER, FOOD WOODPILE FOR TRAMPS ARE OFFERED

Here is the solution of the Santa Ana housewife's tramp problem:

When he comes to your door and begs for something to eat, direct him to 916 East Fourth street.
At 916 East Fourth street there is a station with cots and food for wanderers. There is also a woodpile by which it shall be made known whether or not the applicant for help is worthy or unworthy of assistance.

The tramp-station has been established by the Ministerial Association of Santa Ana, and has been put in charge of the Salvation Army.

Under the heading "The Tramp Problem and the Salvation Army," Rev. J. G. Kennedy, pastor of the United Presbyterian church and secretary of the Ministerial Association of Santa Ana, has issued the following statement to the people of Santa Ana: "Many men have been seeking food and shelter from door to door during winter and will doubtless continue to come throughout the year. No suitable place has been available for the care of those who are thus in temporary straits."

"The Santa Ana Ministerial Association has pledged its co-operation in the establishing and maintaining of a suitable place under the direction and management of the Salvation Army."

"A new industrial and relief station has been opened at 916 East Fourth street. Here a goodly number of cots will be fitted up and a woodpile will be provided with its opportunity to test the willingness to work. The store for the disposal of second-hand clothing is also removed there from its place on Spurgeon street."

"Persons who are solicited for meals or lodging are earnestly advised to send all such applicants to this relief station of the Army, where their merits will be investigated."

"When you feel inclined to help just write on your card what service you wish to render at your expense. The Army will collect from you later if the card is used. It is not wise to give these men money."

"This enlarged work will involve the Army in more expense and labor. This will necessitate more regular monthly contributions to the work of this organization. The new captain, John T. Woodside, is most heartily commended to your confidence and support."

"On behalf of the Santa Ana Ministerial Association, J. G. KENNEDY, Secy."

SUPREME COURT HOLDS AS VALID CALIFORNIA'S 8-HOUR LAW

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The application of California's eight-hour law for women to hotel waitresses was sustained by the United States supreme court today. It is also held the law is applicable to hospital nurses and women pharmacists.

The constitutionality of the California eight-hour day law for women, excepting house servants and agricultural workers, insofar as it applied to hotel waitresses and hospital nurses was attacked in the two test cases decided today. The law was said to discriminate against both employee classes, and particularly by exempting graduate nurses from its provision.

The law, passed in 1911, prohibits employment of women, under severe penalties, in manufacturing, mercantile, laundry, hotel and restaurant establishments or by telephone, telegraph, express and transportation companies over eight hours a day, or 48 hours a week. It was amended in 1913 to apply to women employees in lodging and apartment houses, hospitals and amusement places. It also forced employers to provide seats for women clerks in stores, factories and similar establishments.

That the law was within the "police power" of California, to protect women's health and also to protect them against exploitation by employers, was contended by the state. Louis D. Brandeis, Boston lawyer, and Miss Josephine Goldmark, secretary of the National Consumer League, filed a brief with the supreme court pleading for extension of the law's benefits to overworked underpaid hospital nurses.

Ohio's "coal screen" law, giving the State Industrial Commission indirect authority to regulate the wages of miners and to prescribe the maximum of impure substances allowed in weighing coal, was declared valid by the supreme court.

Ohio's moving picture censorship laws were held constitutional.

The court set the harvesters trust agreement for April 5.

The court ruled that railroads under the supervision of the Interstate Commerce Commission can give passes to officials of common carriers not under its authority.

FATE OF EVELYN MYSTERY; FAULT PROVES HARD TO PLACE

BY J. W. T. MASON
(Former European Manager for the United Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The destruction of the American steamship Evelyn may have been due either to a German, British or a Dutch mine. Unless one of these governments voluntarily informs the United States that it had placed a mine where the Evelyn was blown up, there is no certain way of fixing responsibility for the disaster.

In any case, responsibility for mine disasters is not closely defined by international law. A critical situation ordinarily arises between a belligerent and a neutral nation over such an incident. Some special circumstances would have to be proven. Thus, if the mine was not fixed with contact mechanism, but could be exploded only by electric wires from the shore, the affair would be similar in its consequences to the destruction of a neutral vessel by a submarine.

It is unreasonable to suppose that any but a contact mine caused the Evelyn's sinking. The Germans have declared Holland's coastal waters outside their war zone. It appears the Evelyn had made her way through the securities of Dutch water and was just entering the defensive zone along the German coast when the accident happened.

Why the Germans did not take better precautions to guard a cargo destined for their own mills, if the mine was a German one, is a mystery. The most reasonable supposition is that the Evelyn tried to move through the German field without a local pilot.

It is impossible, however, that the mine was laid by the British. England has reserved to itself the right to use retaliatory measures because of Germany's mine-laying along the coasts of the British Isles and there have been recent suggestions that mines were being strewn in German waters. If the mine was Dutch it must have broken from its original moorings and drifted north along the Dorkum coast. Under these confusing circumstances, before the American ambassadors at London and Berlin are able to fix responsibility for the Evelyn's destruction they must secure confidential information from British or German authorities.

ENCAMPMENT AT HUNTINGTON BEACH IS DECISION

By choosing Huntington Beach, the council of administration of the Southern California Veteran Association yesterday abandoned the idea of selecting either San Francisco or San Diego for this year's encampment. Both exposition cities were bidders for the encampment and by making their decision the council eliminated all discord.

The council met yesterday afternoon at the courthouse, with Commander A. M. Brown of Colton presiding. The encampment will be held from August 1 to 10 inclusive. Fully 3000 will be present at this year's gathering. The association includes veterans of the Mexican, Civil and Spanish-American wars.

Plans for entertainment will be in charge of W. A. Packard of 4122 Bernice avenue. Those present at yesterday's meeting were:

A. M. Brown, commander; O. H. Maynard of Santa Ana, adjutant; L. Scott, senior vice commander; Whitfield; W. A. Packard of Los Angeles; W. D. Hasson of Buena Park, surgeon; C. R. Norton of Glendale, chaplain; W. C. Clark, chief of staff; C. C. Brown, quartermaster-sergeant; J. W. Powers, sergeant-major; Frank Hobart, historian; Fred C. McKinney, aide-de-camp; N. M. Holderman, bugler; A. H. Thomas, color bearer; R. H. Butler, San Diego; S. K. Wilson, San Bernardino; W. J. Leiser, Santa Ana; H. H. Holmes, Corona; J. L. Hattery, San Bernardino; William Thompson, Escondido; R. Heffelfinger, Los Angeles; Jason J. Shepard, Pasadena; Tom Galbraith, Los Angeles, representing Spanish war veterans; H. F. Ashley, representing Sons of Veterans, and A. B. Paul, Santa Ana, quartermaster.

EDUCATORS AT CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI, Feb. 23.—Between 2500 and 3000 school superintendents from all parts of the country arrived here today to attend the three-day meeting of the department of superintendents, of the National Education Association.

PART OF CITY IN FLAMES; SHIPSUNKIN WAR ZONE

PARIS, Feb. 23.—It is officially announced that the Cathedral of Rheims has been again severely bombed by Germans. Twenty civilians are said to have been killed by bursting shells.

The roof of the cathedral was pierced by several shells and the interior partially wrecked.

The Germans directed their guns on Rheims throughout yesterday, more than 1500 shells being fired. The bombardment started early in the morning. A score of houses were fired and a strong wind threatened to destroy a considerable part of the city.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The Norwegian steamer Regin was sunk in the English Channel today.

The Regin was carrying coal from Tyne to Bordeaux. The vessel sank fifteen minutes after being struck. It has been definitely learned that a submarine sank the steamer. The crew of twenty-two men was landed safely in Dover by nearby vessels.

The Regin sank in almost exactly the same spot where the Norwegian steamer Belridge was torpedoed last week. Vigorous protests from Norway are considered certain.

BERLIN, Feb. 23.—The war office today announces that the Russians defending Novo Georgiewak are being steadily rolled back by the advancing Germans along the right bank of the Vistula. Fighting in France is of secondary importance. In Poland the opposing armies are in close contact near Przasnys and furious fighting is progressing.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The Daily Geneva Express correspondent today reports that travelers arriving in Basle declare that six Americans and two women were recently insulted and maltreated by German soldiers at Strassburg because they spoke English. One woman's waist was torn off. German officers rescued the party. Americans are hastening into Switzerland from Germany.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—In an interview with newspapermen today President Wilson indicated that he didn't view the Evelyn incident with alarm. It has not been decided what course of action will be adopted by the administration.

The president pointed out that it has been the practice of nations to furnish pilots to guide neutral vessels through mine fields and to furnish charts of mined districts.

Nothing definite has been decided upon regarding the replies to the German and British notes.

The President is studying the far eastern policy with a view to determining a definite policy, and is waiting for a full report from the Navy Department before action on the protests filed by Germany and Austria that submarines are being built in this country for the European allies.

LONDON, Feb. 23.—Paris announces that German activity near Ypres is increasing and that artillery firing south of the Lys river is fiercer. The Germans have destroyed a British trench with mines. This offsets the British victory after severe fighting at La Basse.

WRAPS BULBS, THEN GOES ON WITH ROBBERY

Burglar Doesn't Like Operating in Bright Glare of Electric Light

To dim the lights in rooms he ran-sacks, a burglar operating in this city during the last few nights wrapped electric bulbs with cloth, such having been his practice upon entering the house of C. H. Baird, 415 French street, and R. E. Lynds, 415 French street.

The Baird home was entered Saturday evening while the occupants of the house were away. The Lynds home was entered yesterday evening.

At the Baird home the burglar made off with one dollar, a sweater and a stickpin. He wrapped a handkerchief around the electric globe in one of the rooms in order to dim the light. The handkerchief was so badly charred that the officers were un-

AFTER MANY MEDICINES FAILED

Mr. Singletary Says Vinol Ended His Suffering from an Awful Cough and Threatened Lung Trouble.

Sumter, S. C.—“I am an oculist and for several years I suffered with an awful cough and lung trouble, so that at times I was scarcely able to go about on account of my condition. I had tried almost every medicine recommended for such troubles, without help, and finally a friend advised me to try Vinol.
Before I had taken one-half bottle I could see an improvement. I have now taken six bottles and my cough is not only gone but my general health is lots better.”—J. W. SINGLETARY, Sumter,
S. C.

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements found in cod livers together with the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

We ask everyone in this vicinity who is troubled with a chronic cough, cold or bronchitis to try a bottle of Vinol, with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not benefit.

At the Lynds home the thief secured a brooch, a child's necklace and a deck of playing cards. Nothing was missed from the Lynds residence at first, but more careful investigation this morning revealed the fact that some articles had been stolen. The brooch is set with a small diamond, valued at about $20.

The towel used by the burglar to dim the light had been wrapped around little Gertrude Lynds' doll.
The little girl is not nearly so much worried over the burglary as she is pleased that the thief did not steal her doll.

The Lynds burglary was discovered at about 9 o'clock last night when the occupants of the house returned from a motion picture theater. The thief gained entrance through a window in the rear and went out through the back door.

FAINTS ON MOTORBIKE AND FALLS TO GROUND

Mrs. Grace Doty of 703 Spurgeon street, was badly shaken up when she fell from the motorcycle she and her father were riding Sunday.

The accident occurred on the road to Newport. Without any word to her father that she was ill, Mrs. Doty fainted, falling to the road. She revived only to faint once again. From the second fainting spell it was difficult to revive her.

W. J. Lampman and William Duncan of the City Transfer Company assisted McCrea in reviving one woman.
While they were thus engaged an auto struck Duncan, knocking him down, and went ahead without ascertaining whether or not Duncan had been hurt.

fetched the hens from the roost.

YOU CAN'T BRUSH OR WASH OUT DANDRUFF

The Simplest and Quickest Way is To Dissolve It.

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to preserve your hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair more quickly.
It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everyone notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

LAD, CAR AND BIKE TANGLE; ALL DAMAGED

Boy is Bruised, Wheel is Smashed and Auto Fender Dented

In trying to avoid colliding with each other, F. L. Bundy, 1111 West Westington avenue, in an automobile, and Tom Willits, 606 Garfield street, riding a bicycle, had a slight wreck at the corner of Bush and Fifth streets yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock.
Rudolph Meyer, becoming mixed up in the tangle as he was crossing the street, was thrown to the pavement and considerably bruised. Willits wheel was smashed and the fender of Bundy's auto dented.

Bundy was driving north on Bush between Fourth and Fifth. He was traveling at a slow rate, so slow, he himself states, that had he been going faster the accident would probably have been averted.

Willits approached on Fifth on his wheel. He was riding along at a good clip, according to those who saw the mishap. Bundy thought Willits was going to turn north on Bush off of Fifth.

Instead of turning, however, Will-its tried to cut across Bush in front of Bundy's machine with the result that Bundy was forced to turn sharply to the west and run his machine into the curb and against a telephone pole.

Young Meyer was caught between the colliding bicycle and automobile.
He was thrown to the pavement and under the machine. One of the wheels of the motor car was off the asphalt and on the curb so that Meyer was not crushed.

Meyer was taken to the hospital, where it was found that he was not severely injured. He was later taken to his home. All those in the mix-up state that it was unavoidable.

ANAHEIM BOY INJURED IN OVERTURNING AUTO DIES FROM INJURIES

Anaheim Herald: Albert Hein, the fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs.
Michael Hein of Hansen Station, died at the Sanitarium Saturday night about 12 o'clock from the effects of the injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

The accident occurred between two and three o'clock about a half-mile north of Stanton. The Ford car belonged to W. M. Gray and was driven by Ralph Huff. Young Hein was riding with Huff while he was trying out the car. The car was being driven at the rate of thirty miles an hour according to the reports of the boys and was running all right when it suddenly swung to one side and turned turtle.
Huff was thrown clear of the car, but young Hein was pinned under it. He was pulled out by a party passing in a machine and a Japanese who lives near by.

A hurried call was made to which Dr. Johnson responded. The boy was brought in to the Sanitarium and retained consciousness until 10 o'clock Saturday morning. From that time he gradually weakened and death came at midnight the same night.

Huff was slightly injured but nothing serious. He was able to get around the same afternoon and has been doing all right since. The car was damaged quite a good deal. It had been to a garage to be repaired, but apparently the repair had not been completed.

ALMOST THIRTY-FOUR HOURS PLAYING PIANO

I. M. Waterbury, known as the "champion" long-distance pianist," in an exhibition at the Palace restaurant, began playing Saturday and continued for 33 hours, 52½ minutes, finishing at 9:52 Sunday evening.

REMEMBER BIRTHDAY OF COUNTRY'S FATHER

Washington's birthday was fittingly remembered at the Santa Ana high school by special assembly. The assembly began by the singing of "America." Marvin Morrison, the new president, was in charge and handled the meeting very ably. He announced that the members of the oratory class would give speeches on the presidents of the United States, although they had had little time to prepare.
Will Sebastian came first with a speech on the life of Washington and was followed by Vier Robinson's eulogy of Lincoln. The girls and boys' glee clubs next rendered a couple of their best pieces. Rev.
Shrock, who followed this number, proved a real interesting entertainer with his illustrative stories. Marie Harris announced the faculty-senior basketball game and Will Sebastian gave senior Ariel assignments. The meeting adjourned to the seventh period.

FIND RUINS OF ANCIENT RACE IN NEBRASKA

LINCOLN, Neb.—Ruins, left by some prehistoric race, in the vicinity of Howe, Neb., have recently been inspected and studied by Prof. Gerard Fowke, the St. Louis geologist, who is curator of the St. Louis museum.

Fowke has been gathering scientific data on the primitive inhabitants of the Missouri Valley, and he investigated the remains of their civilization.
He began with the ancient logs and ruins north of Kansas City and followed the west bank of the river northward, tracing the northern retreat of these ancient farmers and gardeners.

After an exhaustive examination of the ruins found at Howe, Neb., and at Peru, the professor is of the opinion that the ancient remains recently discovered near White Cloud, Kan., were of works made by the same race. Considerable work has been done at Howe under the direction of C. L. Meek, and a large number of bone and horn gardening instruments have been unearthed. The tools, for most part, were found cached beneath what had once been the floors of the dwellings, where they were buried in beds of ashes.

Scientists are now of the belief that a number of the remains found along the Missouri river and the neighboring country were those of a civilization which preceded that of the Indians.

Skeletons discovered by Robert P.
Gilder, of Omaha, and now in the University of Nebraska Museum, are declared by scientists to greatly antedate the Indian. The skulls show much less brain capacity than those of the Indian, and have the very receding forehead characteristic of the early members of the race and but little higher than the ape of gorilla type.

WINTER DOUBLES WORK
—In summer the work of eliminating poisons and acids from the blood is helped by perspiration. In cold weather, with little out-door work or exercise to cause sweating, the kidneys have to do double work. Foley Kidney Pills help overworked, weak and diseased kidneys to filter and cast out of the blood the waste matter that causes pains in sides or back, rheumatism, lumbago, stiffness of joints, sore muscles and other ills resulting from improper elimination. Sold by all

DAIRYMEN TO TALK MILK IN LOS ANGELES

At a meeting of some of the prominent dairymen of the county held this morning at the Old Newport schoolhouse, Charles F. Heil and D. A. Bear were appointed a committee to represent local dairymen at the meeting of the Southern California Dairymen's Association to be held in Los Angeles tomorrow with a view to adjusting matters in regard to prices the Los Angeles wholesalers propose charging during the present year.

This morning's meeting was called as it was understood that the Los Angeles dealers proposed to cut the prices of milk shipped into Los Angeles. The committee was instructed to try to reach an amicable adjustment with the Los Angeles dealers rather than try to force an issue.

LUMBER JACKS MUST BATHE NOW AND THEN

ST. Debate is limited to six hours, with a vote this evening. Senator Dick Jones, the youngest legislator in either house, and the man who worked as a telegraph operator and station agent for the Soo road when he was 13 years old, is the author of the bill. In case of the failure of this bill, he threatens to introduce one demanding that all lumberjacks of Northern Minnesota bathe once weekly. He lives among the lumberjacks in Northern Minnesota.

LEFT FOR DEAD, IS STILL ALIVE

Chief of Grand Army of Republic to Make Visit to Santa Ana Tomorrow

Fifty-three years ago David J. Palmer, clad in a blue uniform, was left for dead on the battlefield at Shiloh.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion is nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we crumble our food, belch, gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.—Advertisement.

church, near Pittsburg Landing.

Tomorrow Col. Palmer will bring to Santa Ana a wound received in that memorable engagement, proving that he has been very much alive for more than half a century since that misadventure of the Civil War.

He is commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic and comes to visit the camps of his comrades on the Pacific coast.

Col. Palmer has been a foremost figure in the G. A. R. work of Iowa and in the making of history by the Republican party in that state for many years. He was born in Pennsylvania in 1839 and went to Iowa in 1856. He served during the four years of the Civil War with credit to himself and his state, and at the close of the war returned to Iowa and engaged in farming.

He was elected to various political offices, served long and faithfully in the legislature, and later was appointed Railroad Commissioner. He was elected commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. at the last national encampment and is revered by the comrades all over the nation.

Colonel Palmer will arrive tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, coming from Los Angeles by automobile.

The Grand Army officers held a meeting at 2 o'clock this afternoon and made arrangements for meeting this noted visitor and the department commander and his staff tomorrow at 11 o'clock at the G. A. R. hall, a band leading the procession of G. A. R. members.

The distinguished visitors will then be taken for an hour's automobile ride to points of interest in and about Santa Ana, returning to the Rossmore for luncheon.

The meeting place, where the citizens of Santa Ana will have the rare opportunity of hearing the commander-in-chief, has not yet been decided upon, but will be provided by the Chamber of Commerce. The Armory or Grand Opera House will probably be used.

As there is but a short time to prepare for this important event, the G. A. R. asks every business house in the city to make a special display of bunting.

HARPER-FAIRVIEW DISTRICTS TO VOTE ON UNION DISTRICT

Same Date, March 6, Richfield to Consider Joining Fullerton Union High School

On March 6 two elections are to be held, one in the Harper and Fairview School districts and the other in the Richfield School District.

Harper and Fairview are to vote upon a proposal to form a union school district. Recently when it was proposed to transfer a portion of the Fairview district to Harper, citizens of the two districts held a meeting with County Superintendent of Schools

10-CENT 'CASCARETS' STRAIGHTEN YOU UP

Tonight! Clean Your Bowels and End Headaches, Colds, Sour Stomach

Get a 10-cent box now. Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and bad colds—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels, or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great. A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.—Advertisement.

Mitchell at which it was agreed that the best way to meet conditions in the two districts is to form a union district. It is proposed to conduct the union school district at Harper, the children from the Fairview section to be given transportation to and from school. Under this proposal Harper will have two teachers paid for by the two districts. Hitherto each district has had one teacher under the law, while Harper had an extra teacher whose salary was paid from a special tax.

Richfield School District, recently formed, is to vote upon joining the Fullerton Union School District. School in the new district will be started probably in three weeks, just as soon as a temporary school house is erected. When school starts, a petition will be signed by parents of children attending the school, asking that an election be called to decide whether or not Richfield and Placencia School districts shall form a union school district. Under a compromise plan, the two districts will then work together, a school for the smaller children of Richfield district being maintained at Richfield, while the older Richfield children will attend school at Placencia.

IMPORTANT CASES ARE BEFORE SUPREME COURT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Following a three-weeks' mid-term recess, the Supreme Court reconvened today. Many decisions were expected, the court having devoted the recess period to their preparation.

Heading the list of cases specially advanced for argument today was that of Leo M. Frank of Atlanta. Although technically assigned for hearing today, Frank's case will probably not be reached before Thursday or Friday.

Among other cases to be argued this week was the suit of the Ramapo Water Company against New York City, growing out of acquisition of the water company's property.

It was also expected today that the court would advance for hearing April 5 the appeal of the Harvester Trust from the decree of dissolution secured by the government, which proved that the trust controls 85 percent of United States manufacture of agricultural implements.

ROBBERS LOOT SAFE OF CHICAGO THEATER, $3000

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Four robbers today dynamited the Princess Theater safe and escaped with $3000. Apparently they attended last night's performance and hid in the theater. They bound and gagged the watchman and proceeded about the robbery in leisurely fashion.

OFFICIALS ARE BACK FROM THE BIG FAIR

Say That Exhibition at San Francisco is Still Far From Being Completed

Sheriff C. E. Jackson and County Auditor W. C. Jerome are back from San Francisco, where they visited the exposition grounds. Jerome attended the state convention of county auditors at San Luis Obispo, and went from there to San Francisco. Jackson was at the state convention of sheriffs at San Francisco. Both officials say that the exposition grounds were literally packed with people.

"It was a great sight," said Jackson. "The buildings are magnificent and the exposition intensely interesting, but it will be two or three months yet before the buildings and exhibits are all complete. Some of the buildings are not finished and have no exhibits installed. Others are finished." "The exposition is great," declared Jerome. Jerome said the hotels are crowded, and accommodations are secured with difficulty.

THE CHICKEN FEED PROBLEM

Co-operative marketing associations, working under a national central association down through the states, counties, and local communities to secure better and more economical distribution of the products of farm, orchard and garden, will probably become firmly established in the United States as a result of the conditions brought about by the European war.

The value of such organization has been recognized and put into practical operation by groups of producers and consumers here and there, but the sudden and unexpected economic changes created by the European situation have driven home to practically all American farm producers the necessity for wide co-operation in both buying and selling operations.

As a specific example right here at home, the rise in the price of wheat created by the unprecedented demand from Europe has brought heavy loss upon the great number of poultry producers who have suddenly found the price of their customary food for chickens and other poultry destroying the narrow margin of profit in the poultry and egg producing business.

At the same time, the chicken growers are confronted by a more or less stagnant market, caused by the disturbed conditions of the ordinary channels of trade. With but a poor market for their poultry, and with the cereals which add to the production of eggs soaring in price beyond the limit to which they can be fed to hens and still leave a profit in eggs, the poultry growers are in a discouraging situation. Their plight, however, is typical of that of many other producers. The cattle situation in the Middle West is largely the same, where corn has leaped in price, without a corresponding increase in the price paid for corn-fed beef.

Representative Kent, whose district has large agricultural and horticultural interests, has joined with a number of other representatives in an effort to find a solution for some of the difficulties facing American food producers. One plan, submitted by Mr. Gardner, of Arkansas, as an amendment to the Agricultural Appropriation Bill, contemplates the creation of a National Marketing Commission, to be composed of nine members, five of whom shall be engaged in agricultural pursuits, and four to be appointed with special reference to their knowledge of commerce, transportation, finance, and law. It is proposed that the Commission be empowered to act with such organizations and individuals as may elect to become part of the National Marketing system.

As an immediate aid in the poultry situation in his particular district, Representative Kent has telegraphed Knox Boude, of the California legislature, stating that he could doubtless arrange for carload lots of corn and wheat for shipment to co-operative associations at Petaluma and other points at lowest prices, but suggests, in addition, that poultry growers should begin at once to turn their attention to providing for large supplies of local food products as a partial remedy. In this connection, he is looking into the merits of Kafir corn or feterita as a possible solution. No doubt a request sent to Congressman Kettner by Orange county poultrymen would secure his hearty co-operation with Congressman Kent in this matter, so that Orange county might share with Sonoma County in any benefits secured. Meantime, of course, local poultrymen might profit by Mr. Kent's advice in the matter of providing a home supply of poultry food.

Already the European war has resulted in the creation of many new lines of manufacturing industry in the United States in order to provide supplies and articles formerly secured in Europe. The war has also given a new birth to the "Made in the U. S. A." plan, and it now bids fair to unite the great producing army of the United States into a coherent force that will make for stability in prices and a fairer return on the proceeds of his product to the producer himself. At the same time, the national marketing system is designed to benefit the consumer by giving him stable costs through the more even distribution of farm products, without congestion at some points, and scarcity at others.

PROMOTING PROSPERITY

In various parts of the country "Build Now" and other movements have been started to boom business. It is of course difficult to persuade people to alter individual plans to take on a general movement. But still there are many cases where people could promote their own interests as well as set money in circulation in this way.

Contractors would build a house for less money today, in all probability, than they would a year from now. Repair jobs would in some cases be less expensive, and in any event vexatious delays could be saved by anticipating one's wants.

Most people let buildings go too long without necessary renovation. Money saved by economizing in house paint may not really be saved. The impression gets abroad that a house is run down, and if one wants to sell, he finds it has acquired a poor reputation. Paint preserves building material.

Farmers in particular are often slack. They let buildings grow weather beaten, actually increasing future repair bills, besides giving a general impression that they are unprogressive. Storekeepers do not realize keenly enough the advantage of an attractive interior. They need to do over walls and ceilings frequently, else they give an impression of untidiness that hurts trade. No man can prosper in business without keeping up the appearance of his location.

If every householder, every merchant, and every farmer, would look over his buildings critically, and spend at once the money that ought to be laid out, and which he could afford, for the good of the property and his business, a big step would be taken toward restoring full prosperity.

THE BOY SCOUTS

Boy Scout troops all over the country have just been celebrating the fifth anniversary of the founding of the order. Although the Scouts were organized in this country but five years ago this month, they already include over 300,000 members in the United States alone. No organization for boys ever saw such a rapid growth.

There are hundreds of other movements for interesting and inspiring boys. But most of them seem to be always trying to get the boys to do what the grown-ups think they ought to. The Boy Scout movement has been an effort to find out the kind of thing that boys like, and then organizing them to do those things.

Wild life and outdoor sports interest boys more than anything else. Camping out experiences, cooking out doors, swimming, paddling of canoes, setting of traps and snares, the learning the ways of wild creatures—all this comes nearer to the heart of a real boy than anything else. A normal boy takes to Indian and frontier life like a fish to his native element.

Don't expect live boys will sit still long listening to lectures on good conduct. After you have talked about five minutes, they are hiding each other's caps and sticking pins into each other's arms. Get them out doors following a woodland trail, and disorder disappears.

A boy may not be willing to work five minutes piling up wood for the kitchen fire. But he will grub around for hours collecting dry sticks for a camp fire, lugging water, and cooking bacon and eggs. The meal of his own cooking may be smoky and burned, but it tastes better than the best hotel dinner. Incidentally on the hike and in the camp, the principles of manliness, generosity and truthfulness can be taught.

LOOKS LIKE HOT CAMPAIGN

Francis J. Heney, who was married in Los Angeles a few days ago, is evidently planning to make Southern California his home. He has leased a house in Santa Monica and it is understood that he will devote his time from now on to law practice in Los Angeles, where he has maintained an office for some time.

Back of this move for a change of residence from San Francisco to Southern California there seems to be a pretty well defined political plan. It certainly looks as Mr. Heney intends to run for United States senator in 1916 as a Southern California man. The retiring lieutenant governor, A. J. Wallace, has already tossed his hat into the senatorial ring and there is no suggestion from any source that Senator Works intends to drop out without giving other aspirants a run for their money.

The Democrats, encouraged by the success of Mr. Phelan, will no doubt have one or more candidates, and it looks as if the senatorial campaign next year would be a lively one.—Riverside Press.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look

THE RISE IN SUGAR PRICES

Need of Home Industry Is Plainly Shown in Statistical Article

(From February 15 Issue of "Facts About Sugar")

A new distributing factor has made itself felt within the past two weeks among the conditions governing the sugar market of the United States. Its effect has been to cause a sharp upturn in prices at a season of the year when such advances are almost unheard of. Lack of ships for transporting Cuban sugar to the United States and consequent high rates for such limited cargo space as is available are held to be the direct cause of this increase.

The following figures, giving New York refiners' quotations in cents per pound for granulated sugar for each week since the beginning of the year, show the sudden and striking nature of the advance in prices:

January 2	4.95
January 9	4.95
January 16	4.95
January 23	4.95-5.05
January 30	5.05
February 6	5.50
February 10	6.00

Ordinarily, under conditions that have prevailed in recent years, the wholesale price of sugar is lower during the early months of the year than later in the season. The reason for this is that Cuba's big crop begins to move to market in large volume about the first of January and the pressure of these supplies, coming directly at the close of the sugar-making season in Louisiana and the beet sugar states, intensifies competition and tends to hold prices to a low level. The early outlook for 1915 did not indicate any probable change in this situation. The output of sugar in Cuba was expected to be about the same as the record-breaking crop of the previous year. Continued wet weather and consequent delay in the beginning of the grinding season caused a slight reduction to be made in these estimates early in January. This merely had the effect of holding raw sugar prices firm. Toward the end of the month, however, the sugar trade suddenly awakened to the fact that it was virtually impossible to transport Cuban sugar to the United States in sufficient volume to supply the current demands of the American market. A rapid advance in the refiners' quotations followed, amounting now to over a cent a pound.

A SIMPLE PROBLEM
The American people send abroad over $100,000,000 a year to pay for imported sugar. To meet this bill requires the wheat crop of over 7,000,000 acres. But all the sugar now imported could be grown on 1,700,000 acres in beets or cane. In other words, we are throwing away the product of approximately 5,400,000 acres of land by not growing our own sugar.

Under normal conditions the receipts of Cuban sugar in the United States are over 200,000 tons a month during the first quarter of the year. Sugar brokers estimate that 50,000 tons a week are required to meet ordinary market demands. Actual receipts from Cuba during the first four weeks of 1915 were less than 75,000 tons, or nearly 45,000 tons below the corresponding period of the previous year.

The withdrawal of a large amount of ocean tonnage and the unusual demands upon shipping caused by the war are directly responsible for this condition. As a result freight rates from Cuba have advanced from their ordinary level of about 10 cents a hundred to over 30 cents a hundred. A rate of 35 cents will enable sugar to begin to move by the all-rail route from Havana to New York.

The existing situation affords a striking illustration of the fact often pointed out by authorities on sugar that, so long as the United States is dependent upon foreign supplies of sugar for weak or disordered kidneys or bladder, Foley Cathartic Tablets, or bladder, wholesome and cleansing purgative, just the thing for winter's sluggish bowels and torpid liver. These well-known standard remedies for sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.

SOCIETY

MONDAY CLUB

Judge W. W. Simon Reads Excellent Paper on 'Elections,' Profitable Discussion

Judge W. W. Simon read a most excellent paper before the Monday Club last evening on the subject of "Elections." He defined elections and stated that under our theory of government the right of a citizen to exercise the franchise was not a natural right but one that is conferred by the state as a privilege. The speaker expressed the opinion that we have altogether too many elections, especially in the State of California, and mentioned that during his residence of five years in Santa Ana there had been no less than eleven elections of various kinds, national, state and municipal, or an average of more than two a year.

The judge believed that the people were not only called on too frequently to go to the polls, but that the methods and machinery of elections are cumbersome and should be simplified. The wasteful expenditure of public funds caused by these frequent elections and complicated methods was pointed out. At the last election in this state the voter was confronted with forty-eight different constitutional amendments, referendums and initiative measures, which presented a baffling maze of legal intricacies unintelligible even to the legal mind.

A very interesting portion of the paper was a review and discussion of the system of preferential voting in vogue in several sections of the country, such as Seattle, Spokane and Wisconsin, which the speaker thought might be a step in the right direction. A number of extracts and opinions were quoted from authorities on this question. After the conclusion of the paper the subject was thrown open for general discussion, which resulted in calling forth a variety of views, from standpointism to radicalism and all intermediate points.

Class Has Social

The senior class of the Delhi Sunday school together with a few friends, enjoyed a very successful social in the grammar school, on Friday evening last. Owing to the inclement weather, not so many were present as had been anticipated, but all those who were entered heartily into the spirit of the games and music, to which the evening was devoted. Mrs. Franklin, the class teacher, presided over the refreshments, which consisted of cake and lemonade, and were served at a late hour. One more game, "spin the plate," followed, and by the time all the forfeits were redeemed, midnight was drawing very near, so the proceedings closed with the singing of "America."

Washington's Birthday Honored; Schoolmate Tells of Visit to Mount Vernon

The Intermediate pupils under Mr. Garstang's teaching, are trying to learn the national songs, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean," and "America." The students opened the Washington birthday exercises by singing "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean."

Ruth Violett spent several months last fall traveling with her mother, Mrs. Dr. Violett, in the South and visiting cities of historic interest in the East. She gave a very interesting account of her visit to Mount Vernon. Her classmates listened and enjoyed every word of her speech, especially because she was one of them. Her speech in brief was as follows:

"We approached Mount Vernon at the Texas Gate, so named because it is the largest gate and Texas is the largest state. The grounds are laid out in geometrical plots, edged with boxwood. Here are found the trees planted by George Washington. Different ones were given to him by different noted men of his day, one given by Lafayette being especially prized by Washington." Whenever one of the trees is destroyed by a storm, it is immediately cut up into souvenirs and sold by Mount Vernon people. An old-fashioned sun-dial attracts quite a little attention.

"From the gardens, we entered the kitchens where the pewter utensils hang in their accustomed places. A large fireplace has an old-fashioned oven at the side, where very excellent bread was baked in olden times."

"A brief survey of the spinning rooms showed spinning wheels, large looms and hand looms, just as they were used by Martha Washington and her maids."

"In the mansion itself, we entered a large banquet room, at the end of which we saw a more than life-size picture of Washington, done by a famous German artist. Here also is the immense marble fireplace with the fire-dogs presented to Washington by an European king."

"The music room contains the harpsichord which George Washington gave to Martha, it being one of the first in America. The songs they sang together may be seen in this room."

"In the following room are the cases containing state documents signed by Washington, his sword and his fire-arms."

"The imposing stairway leads to the bedrooms kept up by the state societies—Delaware and New Jersey. Martha Washington's room faces that part of the garden containing Washington's tomb. George Washington's bedroom is preserved as nearly as he had used it, as is possible."

"Down in a corner of the grounds, surrounded by an iron railing, is the red brick tomb of Washington's family, where George and Martha Washington repose side by side. At George Washington's request, all of his family are buried here and an old family servant but a few years ago took the key after the last burial, locked the tomb and threw the key into the Potomac river. All visitors approach this sacred spot with deep respect."

WASHINGTON'S KISS

Mr. Garstang was enthusiastically received as he stepped forth and sang a patriotic solo.

Mr. Zellan, the justly popular civics teacher, gave a short talk on Washington. He spoke of his career and ended by asking that America could show Washington today if he should ask for an accounting of the country he helped to establish. Mr. Zellan said that we could show the results of three wars—one for liberty, one for boundary, and one glorious one to free the slaves. We could show him a widely extended boundary; improved agricultural conditions; millions of immigrants sheltered under one flag, a determined war being waged against intemperance; improved politics, and a national endeavor to follow the advice given by George Washington in his farewell address.

Prof. W. C. Roberts read some of the maxims for good conduct collected by George Washington when he was 13 years old, and spoke of his treatment of his copy books and school books, which treatment present-day children would do well to copy.

Vincent Nieblas spoke on "School Spirit," commending the lack of cigarette smoking and the use of profane language down on the athletic grounds. He mentioned the excessive use of powder by some pupils last year and complimented the girls on the improvement this year. He closed his remarks by the prediction that Intermediate school will have athletic championships this year.

The exercises closed with singing "America."

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Old-Time Social Honors Washington's Birthday at U. P. Church

An old-time social was given last evening at the United Presbyterian church, when over two hundred and seventy members and friends gathered in honor of Washington's birthday. The church was decorated with many flags and pictures of George Washington draped with flags, while the dining room was gay with the Stars and Stripes, bright colored crepe papers being artistically used. The tables were decorated with bright colored geraniums and smilax. Many of those present were decked out in the colonial dresses and attire of days gone by, with the lace pictures, powdered hair and curls, kerchiefs and dainty caps. Several ladies wore dresses of brides of long ago, and special mention is made of one lady who wore the same dress she wore to the Centennial in 1876. Many of the gowns were very becoming to the ladies of the present century. On entering the church each one was requested to select a tiny map of his native state to wear during the evening. This table was presided over by Mrs. J. T. Klatt and Mrs. J. E. Collins, chairman of the social committee. From here, the guests went into the Sunday school room where they grouped themselves around the tables. All were to relate old-time affairs that had happened during their residence in that state and the next move was made to the group representing the state where each resided before coming to California. Finally, all were to gather in one large group of Californians. This proved to be a very pleasant introduction and many mutual friends were discovered in this way.

Then the jolly crowd repaired to the dining room below where a most sumptuous supper of baked beans, brown bread, meat loaf, scalloped potatoes, hot rolls, jelly, pickles, cabbage slaw, coffee, apple pie and cheese were bountifully served. The efficient dining room service was in the hands of the ladies of the Missionary Society and the tables were served by the boys and girls of the congregation.

After all had partaken of the good things to eat, Dr. Kennedy announced that there was an opportunity to dispose of the old church site and asked for a vote of the congregation to sanction the disposing of the lot. A unanimous vote was given authorizing the trustees to dispose of the lot, after which all went upstairs where a program of music and a general good time was enjoyed. Harry Warner played a number of selections on the piano. Miss Freda Mussey sang a vocal solo, and was heartily encouraged. She responded by singing "Coming Through the Rye." Mr. Viera gave a vocal solo and responded to an encore by singing "Old Black Joe." A number of old-time songs were sung, the congregation joining in the singing. At a late hour, all went home pronouncing this as one of the gala socials of the congregation.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Temple

"The Girl of the Golden West," which, in its pictured form, presented by Jesse L. Lasky in association with David Belasco, is to be the attraction at the Temple Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, is said to be one of the most tensely exciting films ever staged. Produced in the very country where the incidents are supposed to take place, this drama of a California mining camp of the days of '49 is realistic in the ultimate degree and the extraordinary love story of the "road agent" and the honest "girl" of Cloudy Mountain, becomes more fascinating than ever just in proportion as it is more fully unfolded before the eyes. Beyond all doubt, "The Girl of the Golden West," David Belasco's most successful drama, is ideal material for photodramatic art. The Lasky organization has made a supreme effort to do it justice and submits it with confidence to the final jury—the millions of American photoplay enthusiasts.

Today and tomorrow the Temple is showing Geo. Deban in "The Italian," a most wonderful picture.

"A Peck O' Pickles"

Local theater goers will be given their first opportunity to see Kolb & Dill and their exposition company of merry-makers in their latest and greatest success, "A Peck O' Pickles," when they will appear at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday, February 24.

The same company, which just closed a long engagement in Los Angeles and which is to open at the Alcazar in San Francisco shortly, will be seen here.

Kolb & Dill, while carrying the stellar roles, have surrounded themselves with a cast of well known players including Nana Bryant, Percy Bronson, Miss Horner, Miss Hillis, and many others. The famous Kolb & Dill beauty chorus will be very much in evidence and for voice power, grace and beauty, are second to none ever seen here.

HUNTINGTON BEACH HIS BID'S LOW BUT CHECK IS SOMEWHAT SHY

Though He Loses the Contract, Bert Noble Will Probably Pave the Street

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Feb. 23.—Owing to an oversight in making out the certified check to accompany his bid on the street paving contract Bert Noble, whose bid was the lowest by $3000, failed to land the contract. According to the specifications in the advertisement the bids were to be accompanied by a certified check for ten per cent of the amount. Noble's bid was $69,850 and his certified check was for $6,985.

Acting on the advice of City Attorney Head, who informed the trustees that their only choice in the matter was to advertise again or let the contract to another bidder, the contract was awarded to the Johnson-Shea company of Riverside.

The trustees in order to prevent further delay in the paving decided to go ahead and award the contract even though the cost would be somewhat greater.

It is currently reported that Mr. Noble has taken a sub-contract from the successful firm at practically the figure of his bid to the city and will therefore do the work.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Broast Tea, or the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

Rub Pain and Stiffness away with a small bottle of old honest
St. Jacobs Oil

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a 25 cent bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the ache and pain right out of your back and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica and lame back misery so promptly!

as one of the attractions for visitors. Miss Frances Howard, assistant librarian, who has charge of the story telling hour every Friday afternoon at the library, is having good audiences. Forty-five children were present last week.

City Engineer G. W. Spencer has completed the plans and specifications for the third and last unit of the main sewer system and the city clerk has been instructed to advertise for bids on the work. In addition to the lateral which has been arranged for others are being planned and will be put under construction in a very short time.

A petition signed by property owners representing considerably more than a majority frontage of the 4800 feet on Main street between Main and Ocean avenues, was presented to the city trustees at their last meeting and the work was ordered started on the way to execution. The petition also asked for the laying of sidewalks and curbs from Edgeware street to Main street.

Bettering Street
The Huntington Beach Co. owns more than one-half the frontage along this stretch of Seventeenth, about 5400 to be exact, and is promoting the work because of its desire to advance the interests of the western section of the city.

The company is said to desire to make this the main street of the city and has already established a park on the west side of the street and turned it over to the city. Not long ago the company also offered to donate a block and a half of property on the east side of the street, to the city on certain conditions. One block was to go to the city for a park at the end of five years provided the city care for it during that time. The other half block was to be donated to the city in case the city would erect upon it a municipal building of a permanent nature. The offer, after some discussion was accepted although there is little likelihood that the city will build a city hall there as desired by the company.

However, the Seventeenth street pavement is to be laid regardless of conditions and will be laid for the full 60-foot width of the street, less parking. It will connect at Seventeenth and Main street with the paving to be done by an assessment district extending from Orange avenue to the city limits on Main street and also extending to Delaware avenue on Seventeenth where it will connect with pavement already laid which meets the county boulevard.

The paving work now under way or completed combined with that recently laid and provided for together with this stretch on Seventeenth will undoubtedly give more miles of paved streets for its population than any other city in this section of the state. Thomas C. H. DeLapp on Friday of last week formally took charge of the Huntington Beach postoffice. Former Postmaster Clippenger and his assistants are still assisting with the mail.

SEEKING TO SOLVE PROBLEMS OF CITRUS FRUIT INDUSTRY

(By Prof. E. A. Zumbro, Teacher of Agriculture, Riverside High School.)

Numerous writers have told us what was the matter with the citrus fruit industry. Recently the Riverside Press published an article by G. Harold Powell, who told how we must raise the standard of the product. Prof. E. A. Zumbro, teacher of agriculture in the boys' polytechnic high school at Riverside now comes back with a new solution. He says there is far too much difference between the price received by the citrus fruit grower and that paid by the ultimate consumer. He gives examples and makes a helpful suggestion or two. The article will be found well worth careful study.

The article on "Readjustments Are Necessary," by Manager Powell, in the Press of February 3, has been read with the keenest interest by growers of citrus fruits. Mr. Powell tells the growers what their duty is, as viewed from the standpoint of the seller of the fruit. These are, first, to grow better fruit; second, to grade and handle it more carefully, and third, to send it more regularly to the market. Every thoughtful grower assents to each of these propositions, although it means a considerable increase in the cost of production. The exchange associations of Riverside and Highgrove, at least three of them, readjusted their pooling and made the rules for handling the fruit more stringent this year, in order to accomplish the very things demanded by Mr. Powell. I hope and believe that the associations generally will make every effort possible to carry out Powell's suggestions. On the other hand, there is one thing which the growers may reasonably expect of the organizations which sell their fruit, to return to them that part of the price paid by the consumer to which they are justly entitled. We cannot agree that "The permanent prosperity of the citrus industry depends on getting a sufficient number of people to use oranges and lemons," and on that alone. A sufficient number of people were found last year to use our fruit and pay a good price for it, but that did not make a profitable year for the grower. Our selling agencies failed to get the grower his part of the price paid for the fruit. Near the close of last season I received from friends some of the market retail prices of oranges. The following quotations on prices per dozen are representative.

During last month there was not a week when the average of the sales all over the country amounted to $2.27 per box, and yet fruit was selling in Champaign, Ill., on January 20, 1915, at 50c a dozen for 96s, 45c for 126s, 40c for 150s, 35c for 176s, and 25c for 200s—four to five dollars per box, and the loss from decay is very small now.

No kind of advertisement can assure the "permanent prosperity of the citrus industry" so long as this condition continues. We can't honestly tell anyone that the food value of oranges or lemons is $5 or even $4 per box, for oranges contain only five or six per cent of sugar and about half a per cent of citric acid. The only reason people pay 25c to 60c per dozen for them is because they taste good. Unless the selling agencies can and do reduce the margin between the consumer and the producer, there can be no permanent prosperity of the citrus industry, and unless the agencies do accomplish this reform, the growers can do only one of two things, either go out of business or resort to reactionary measures and take control of the distribution of the fruit at the other end of the line. The men who successfully took control of the shipping of their fruit are not

+ Big downtown grocery. * Little corner grocery.

Congressman Kettner wrote me from Washington, June 10: "The best California oranges I saw were selling 50c apiece, or six a quarter. The lowest grade of California oranges, so small that I would hardly believe they were from California, except that they were seedless, were selling on the stands for 30c a dozen." Think of it, fruit shipped from here after the middle of May selling in our capital for $5 to $6 a box and bringing the grower red ink!

It must be evident from the above that there is a standard price for oranges the country over which brings the retailer about $4 per box on sound fruit, less of course on that showing decay. The price is fairly uniform throughout the year, regardless of

MOTHER AND BABE ARE STRUCK BY SAME BULLET

NEW YORK.—Carl Main, 19, who lives with his sister, Mrs. Pearl Snyder, of 414 Hudson avenue, West New York, N. J., was playing with a loaded .38-caliber revolver when it was accidentally discharged. The bullet struck Mrs. Snyder in the back and lodged in her spine. She was carrying her month-old baby in her arms at the time and as she fell the child's head struck the floor with great force.

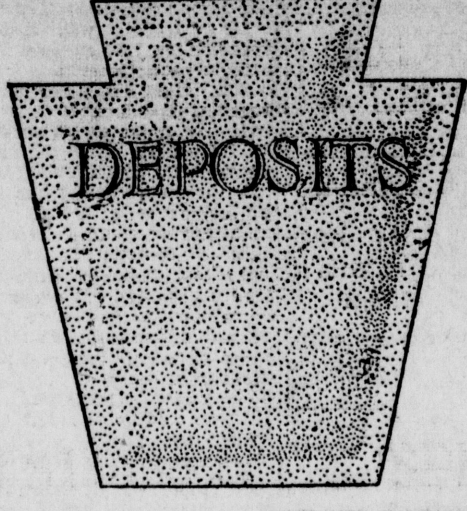

Mrs. Snyder was paralyzed from the waist down. She pleaded with the police not to arrest her brother and Dr. Brady advised against it for fear that the arrest of Main might cause the death of Mrs. Snyder. She is in a critical condition at the North Hudson Hospital, and her baby may not survive.

PLANT ALMONDS

On this continent Almonds are only grown in California and the U. S. market alone demands four times the present supply. Plant almonds at Templeton or Paso Robles and make money—it's a cinch.

PLANT PEARS

For profit! California Bartlett Pears are in a class by themselves and monopolize the market. Did you know that Templeton-Paso Robles district produces the fancy grade of Bartlett, Winter Nelis and Du Comice.

PLANT CHERRIES

They are the most attractive and the best fruit of the summer season, and are very profitable. Soil and climate near Templeton produce a fine quality. Trees forty years old in family orchards are the indisputable evidence.

PLANT PRUNES

The Prune industry of California ranks first in the world, over one-half of the world's product being grown in California, and the dried product now finds a ready market in all countries. Prunes grown near Templeton are rich in sugar, fine of flavor, good size, and lose less weight in drying because grown without irrigation.

PERHAPS

You are more familiar with Apple and Walnut growing. Come to the office and let us show you apples and walnuts grown there. We also have a lot of views which will give you a good idea of the beauty of the country, and we want to tell you what's doing and who is doing it. CAN CIRCULATE NOMINATION PETITIONS

Ben Brown Enters Race for City Clerk; Last Day for Filing Will Be March 23

Commencing today candidates for city offices can file their nomination papers. Under the law the city clerk may file nomination petitions not more than fifty days and not less than twenty days before the election, which will be held on April 12.

Up to noon today none of the candidates had taken out their nomination papers.

However, the candidate's card has arrived. The first circulated for the city campaign made its appearance today when Ben Brown began handing out cards announcing that he is a candidate for city clerk. Incidentally, it might be mentioned that Brown is a new candidate to be added to the list of those seeking the clerkship.

O. H. Maryatt, who is a candidate for city trustees from the third ward, was at the city hall this morning making inquiry as to the procedure for getting his name on the ballot.

ARE WOMEN NATURALLY DESPONDENT?

A prominent writer so claims. Women are constituted with a delicate organism and in nine cases out of ten mental depression may be attributed to an abnormal condition of the system, which expresses itself in nervousness, sleeplessness, backache, headaches, causing constant misery and as a result, despondency. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, is the one great remedy for this condition. It goes to the root of the trouble and overcomes despondency.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT DECLINES TO HOLD TENNANT FOR TRIAL IN SUPERIOR COURT

Cox Satisfied That Injury Caused During Scuffle, Not
With Intent to Kill

This morning Justice Cox dismissed the case against James Tennant, street superintendent of Fullerton, Tennant was charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon Frank Claudina, with whom he had an argument over the disposal of some trash.

According to the evidence as viewed by the justice, Claudina stepped into his barn and picked up the ax. Tennant and Claudina scuffled, Tennant testifying that his efforts were bent to take the ax away from Claudina, not to use it on him. In the scuffle Claudina's scalp was cut.

"No jury would convict Tennant of attempting to kill Claudina," said the justice.

Judge Thomas Today is Taking Testimony in Quintana Against Wickersheim

Today Judge Thomas is hearing testimony in the action brought by Henry and Emma Quintana of Tustin against E. P. Wickersheim of McPherson for $2,087.50 damages. According to the complaint and evidence so far taken, a buggy in which Mrs. Quintana was riding and a heavy wagon owned by Wickersheim collided, and Mrs. Quintana was thrown from the buggy.

Among other injuries, it is alleged that the thumb of her left hand was so badly mangled that it had to be amputated.

Has Money Coming
The City of Fullerton has filed notice with the Board of Supervisors of its claim for $450 against Trowce & Stoecker, who have the contract for building the Olive bridge. The communication asserts that Fullerton sold the contractors a motor and pump for $500, and was paid $50, the remainder not being paid when due. The county is asked to hold out from payment to the contractors the amount of Fullerton's demand.

Had White Light
Today Carl Pressel of Anaheim filed an answer to the damage action brought by E. Barba. Barba asks $15,000 damages for injuries received when his buggy was hit by Pressel's automobile. Barba was thrown out, and alleges that he had an arm broken, his head cut and his body injured otherwise in various ways.

Pressel declares the accident occurred through Barba's fault. Pressel was driving on the Buena Park road on a dark night, and passed a motorcycle. Ahead of him he saw a white light. He thought a vehicle was approaching, and he swung clear over to his right side to avoid it. He ran into the rear of Barba's buggy. He declares that had Barba carried a red light, as the law requires, there would have been no collision. Tipton & Callor are attorneys for Pressel, who asks that no damages be awarded Barba.
